

What if This Isn't a Detour?

Finding Meaning in the Places You Never Planned to Be

Date

Wednesday, October 28

Time

12:00 PM - 1:30 PM

Venue

Academic Building C105

Sejin Kim

- SUNY Korea Business Management Graduate
- Adaptive Fashion Model
- Online Content Creator - YouTube Channel <RealSeJin>

RSVP

About the Speaker

Sejin Kim is a fashion model, former national team swimmer, and Asia's first game accessibility specialist. He earned his B.S. in Business Management from SUNY Korea and has built a career across sports, business, accessibility, and fashion. His professional experience includes corporate accessibility initiatives, public speaking, and advocacy, and he currently continues his work across fashion and media.

About the Seminar

We often see unexpected turns as detours, but they can become the experiences that shape who we are. Drawing on Sejin Kim's journey from a national team swimmer to an ordinary college student, and from Asia's first game accessibility specialist to a fashion model, this seminar explores how unexpected paths can create new possibilities and reveal meaning over time.